The Adams Field House Ticket Office will remain open until 6 p.m. Wednesday night for the convenience of those individuals wishing to purchase tickets for Thursday night's performance by the Harlem Globetrotters.

Ticket manager Gary Hughes said, "The last time the Globetrotters were here we had a tremendous number of people trying to buy tickets on game night. We will remain open until six Tuesday and Wednesday evenings so that people can come down after work and get their tickets."

The Globetrotter show begins at 7:30 Thursday night and Hughes said the ticket office will be open from 8 a.m. until after game time on Thursday.

The tickets, which are also on sale at the Western Bank Lobby, are $4.50, $3.50 and $3 for reserved seats and $2.50 for general admission. Children 12 and under receive a $1 discount on the $4.50 and $3.50 reserved seating.

NOTE---THE TICKET OFFICE IS ALSO OPEN UNTIL SIX TONIGHT (Tuesday).
